

Kelvin Nduka | Graphic Designer

Location: Lagos

Telephone: 09090137231

Email: kelvinnduka2020@gmail.com

Profile

Highly creative and hard-working graphic designer dedicated to providing innovative design solutions for businesses in order to optimize marketing efforts and convey a message of credibility. Competent at creating designs with unique concepts and interacts with clients to produce the best result.

Core skills

- Branding
- Print Design
- Typography
- Corporate Design
- Adobe Illustrator
- Adobe Photoshop
- Project Management
- Public Speaking
- Conceptual thinker
- Time Management

Education

Bachelor of Medical Laboratory Science, Medical Laboratory Science (anticipated 2023), University of Lagos, Nigeria.

Work Experience

Golden Cross Infirmary & Maternity

Medical Laboratory Scientist Intern

Festac Town, Lagos, Nigeria

October 2019 to December 2019

Responsibilities

- Proper label of samples for accurate patient identification.
- Record test results by entering data into computers to provide a good account of a patient's healthcare journey.
- Restocking Laboratory supplies to increase productivity.
- Sterilizing and cleaning laboratory equipments to ensure they are in peak conditions.

Volunteer Experience

Tutor

Volunteer, Graphic Design Tutor at Jennex Design June 2020 to Present

- Work with students closely to ensure they understand key concepts.
- Design Certificates.
- Review students assignment.

Professor Ogundipe Innovation Challenge (POIC)

Member, Registration Team

September 2019

- Registered over 1500 attendees for the event.
- Monitored registration activities to ensure provision was made for adequate resources.
- Reviewed registration plans to ensure they met the standards of the event.
- Ensured the venue had a strong WiFi connection to support registration processes.