

Kelvin Nduka | Graphic Designer

Location: Lagos

Telephone: 09090137231

Email: kelvinnduka2020@gmail.com

Profile

Highly creative and hard-working graphic designer dedicated to providing innovative design solutions for businesses in order to optimize marketing efforts and convey a message of credibility. Competent at creating designs with unique concepts and interacts with clients to produce the best result.

Core skills

- Branding
- Print Design
- Typography
- Corporate Design
- Adobe Illustrator
- Adobe Photoshop
- Project Management
- Public Speaking
- Conceptual thinker
- Time Management

Education

Bachelor of Medical Laboratory Science, Medical Laboratory Science (anticipated 2023),
University of Lagos, Nigeria.

Work Experience

Patient Centered Care Movement, Africa (PaCeM-Afro)

Graphic Designer

May 2021- Present

Responsibilities

- Designed Infographics and Posters which were used to educate more health workers on the need for Patient Centered Care.
- Developed Ideas and worked with other team members in producing contents.
- Communicated and Publicized the Movement objectives across various Social Media Channels.
- Ensured that designs reflected the goal/desired message.

Golden Cross Infirmery & Maternity
Medical Laboratory Scientist Intern

Festac Town, Lagos, Nigeria
October 2019 to December 2019

Outline

Worked in a hospital laboratory by supporting the work of staff in order to contribute efficiently to laboratory diagnosis.

Responsibilities

- Proper label of samples for accurate patient identification.
- Preparing and staining slides for analysis.
- Record test results by entering data into computers to provide a good account of a patient's healthcare journey.
- Restocking Laboratory supplies to increase productivity.
- Sterilizing and cleaning laboratory equipments to ensure they are in peak conditions.

Volunteer Experience

Tutor

Volunteer, Graphic Design Tutor at JENNEX Design

June 2020 to September 2020

- Worked with students closely to ensure they understood key concepts
- Created engaging activities to improve the effectiveness of student learning.
- Designed Certificates to award students.
- Assessed and Reviewed students assignment.

Professor Ogundipe Innovation Challenge (POIC)

Member, Registration Team

September 2019

- Registered over 1500 attendees for the event.
- Monitored registration activities to ensure provision was made for adequate resources.
- Reviewed registration plans to ensure they met the standards of the event.
- Assisted in distribution of materials to attendees.
- Supported colleagues in ensuring there was an adequate supply of computer systems to speed up registration processes.

